1. The allowance to a person whose residential move is performed by the Department at no cost to the person shall be limited to $50.00. 2. An occupant will be paid on an actual cost basis for moving his or her mobile home from the displacement site. In addition, a reasonable payment to the occupant for packing and securing personal property for the move may be paid at our discretion. 3. An occupant who moves from a mobile home may be paid for the removal of personal property from the mobile home in accordance with the Moving Cost Schedule. 4. The allowance to a person with minimal personal possessions who is in occupancy of a dormitory style room shared by two or more other unrelated persons shall be limited to $50.00. 5. When using the Moving Cost Schedule, a "counted room" means that space in a dwelling unit containing the usual quantity of household furniture, equipment and personal property. It shall include such space as a living room, dining room, bedrooms, kitchen, recreation room, library, study, laundry room, basement, garage, workshop and patio, and "out buildings" if such places do, in fact, contain sufficient personalty as to constitute a room. 6. Rooms or storage areas containing substantial amounts of personal property, equivalent to one or more rooms may be counted as additional rooms. Bathrooms will generally be excluded from the room count. Determination of equivalency requires judgment. An oversized room may contain sufficient furniture for two rooms and can be considered as two rooms. An alcove dining area may be considered as a separate room if it contains a normal amount of dining room furniture. 7. A record shall be made of the rooms or room equivalents counted for payment of moving expense claim based on schedules. 8. No temporary storage, lodging or transportation expense shall be paid to claimants electing the Schedule. 9. The owner occupant of a multi-family dwelling unit or of a mixed use property may elect to receive payment for their own dwelling unit under the schedule and still be eligible to receive payment for moving personal property from the other units as a business move. (See Business Move Section). 10. Where rental units are partially furnished, tenants may elect to receive payment based on the schedule to the personal property they own, to the nearest full room. The cost of moving personal property owned by the landlord in such units can be paid only as a business move.
